Dear Mr Brennan,

1. I refer to your enquiries received at this office on 29 November 1994 and 11 August 1995 requesting a copy of your service record and medal entitlement for your service in Japan.
2. I wish to apologise for the delay with our reply but over the last twelve months this office has been inundated with requests.
3. Enclosed for your information are copies of the following service documents relating to your service in the Australian Army:
 - a. Attestation Forms
 - b. Service and Casualty Forms
 - c. Proceedings for Discharge
4. In accordance with the records held by this office you were entitled to the following Honours, Decorations or Medals which have been issued:
 - a. 1939/45 Star
 - b. Pacific Star
 - c. War Medal 1939/45
 - d. Australia Service Medal
5. Whilst examining your record of service, it was noted that you may be eligible for a further award for your service with the Australian Army. On 19 April 1994 the Minister for Defence Science and Personnel announced the introduction of a number of new Defence Related Awards to recognise service to Australia. The awards, in general, encompass the period of the Second World War through to current members of the Australian Defence Force.

6. It should be noted that the regulations and guidelines for the awards are still to be finalised and that the authorisation to issue the awards has not yet been formally granted. It is expected that it will be some considerable time before the awards will be available for issue.

7. Your correspondence has been noted and included in a register of enquiries. In view of the administration associated with the issue of new and existing awards, it will not be possible at this time to give any advance information as to individual entitlement.

8. Please notify this office immediately should you change your address.

9. Should you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to write to this office at the above address.

10. I also wish to advise you that the records maintained by this office are of a personal nature only. Information regarding unit activities, battles, areas of operation, campaigns, histories and (where appropriate) Prisoners Of War, may be held at the Australian War Memorial. However, it is stressed that the War Memorial puts the onus on the inquirer to conduct their own research or to hire an approved researcher. The address is:
